Today's Thought

The Lord permits great trials to come upon His loved ones. He tries them as gold. Now is your opportunity to show that you do trust in your Redeemer, even though in the crucible of affliction. Be cheerful. Let your cheerfulness be seen in your countenance, because you have Jesus by your side, to watch with you. You may converse with Jesus. You may say, "The Lord is my helper. I shall not be moved." You may find blessed opportunities to speak to some soul words of courage, and sow seed that will spring up and bear fruit. Let all see in whom you place your trust.

Due to the Corona virus threat impacting our church attendance at this time of year, the board has voted in favor of retaining the current church officers for the next calendar year. We will vote on this via email and phone calls during this coming week as we want everyone to be involved in the process.

Did you watch John Bradshaw, from It is Written, share presentations ranging from Heart Disease and Diabetes to Mental Health and overcoming addictions? You can see each presentation at your leisure at takecharge.life

Keep our Missionaries, Joshua, Stephanie, and Nathan, in your prayers as they minister in Cambodia!
